Ambassador and Chancellor.

The most distinguished of early British diplomatists, Sir Henry Wotton, Kt. (1568-1639), whilst passing through Germany on his way to Venice and staying at Augsburg, wrote in his post's album the following definition: "Legatus est vir bonus, peregrè missus ad mentiendum Reipublicæ causâ:" intended, as he tells us in his autobiography, to be Englished as follows: "An Ambassador is an honest man sent to lie abroad for his country's good," a definition capable of two interpretations in English, but only one in the original. The long telegram, published on Saturday, describing the interview in Germany of Mr. Stead, reminds us of a less-known aphorism of Sir Henry: "A Chancellor is a deceitful man kept at home for the purpose for which an Ambassador is sent abroad."

OBITUARY.

G. VIVIAN VERNON.

It is with sincere regret that we have to record the death of Mr. G. Vivian Vernon. Mr. Vernon first came to Egypt between seven and eight years ago, when he was on the staff of Sir John Aird and Co. On the completion of the works at Assouan Mr. Vernon commenced business in Alexandria, and for the last two years he had been manager and director of the British Engineering Company. His death occurred on Saturday at the Deaconesses' Hospital, after a long and painful illness. His death, at the early age of 38, will be regretted by a wide circle of friends. The funeral took yesterday, the service being conducted by the Rev. A.H. Longley.

FEHIM PASHA.

TERRORISING CONSTANTINOPLE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, February 3.

Baron Marschall de Bieberstein was received in audience by the Sultan. The crimes of Fehim Pasha were the chief subject of the conversation, and as a result his Majesty has ordered the formation of a special commission at Yildiz to examine the charges. Fehim Pasha has become an object of terror to everybody. In the meanwhile he parades the city ostentatiously. (Reuter)

It is with a certain measure of relief that we hear of the action taken by the German Embassy at Constantinople to punish Fehim Pasha, chief of the Hafieh. This functionary has thus far enjoyed immunity owing to the fact of his being son of the foster-brother of the Sultan, and therefore a privileged bosom-serpent. A worthy successor of Ghani Bey, whose oppressions are recorded in Mr. Hulme Beaman's interesting book on the Near East, Fehim has been, and is still, the object of the hatred and terror of all Turkish subjects. His gorgeous carriage, with its yellow upholstery, is one of the sights of Pera as it rolls swiftly down the Grande Rue, with his Excellency seated pompously in it---a fat and short man with a decidedly unpleasant cast of countenance. His rival at Court is Nejib Melhame (or Malfamé, to quote a Perote nickname) and both have distinguished themselves by their zeal in hatching and revealing the same plots! Fehim is more daring than the cunning Syrian; possibly because he feels himself more secure. Twice, at night, he has striven to get sympathy at Yildiz by the singularly risky method of dropping from this same gorgeous vehicle a bomb timed to explode when his person was sufficiently removed from danger. This served another purpose. It was intended to prove the existence of conspiracy, to discover which Fehim and Malfamé had received a commission. Malfamé was the first to be commissioned. He miraculously unearthed a nest of bombs and conspirators and after ransacking every nook and corner, he assured the Sultan that he might repose in absolute tranquillity. This would not do for Fehim, who, to upset the Sultan's confidence in his rival, resorted to the barbarous method above described. Perhaps it was a coincidence, but strange to relate the outrages presumably attempted on his person took place soon after the mysterious removal from Top Hana of several of the bombs which Malfamé had found. Q.E.D. It remains to be seen what punishment the Sultan will mete out to his foster son, to appease the wrath of the indignant German Elchi—possibly some promotion to the provinces and a subsequent restoration to Imperial favour.

THE SEASON UP-RIVER.

Assouan has never had a more brilliant season than the present. For the last week the three hotels of the Upper Egypt Hotels Company have been full, and, judging by the numerous orders coming in daily, will remain so for some time to come. There are 320 visitors staying at the Cataract Hotel, 180 at the Savoy, and 120 at the Grand Hotel. The hotels at Luxor belonging to the same company are doing just as well, and the new Winter Palace Hotel, although only newly opened, is already overbooked. Among the visitors staying at Assouan are Sir William and Lady Ewart and family, Comte de Bruges and suite, Comte and Comtesse Inards, Countess von Henckel Donnersmark, and Countess Hahn.

Among the latest arrivals at the Winter Palace, Luxor, are M. Achille Fould and Baroness de Forest and suite, Sir Hamilton Lang and party, etc.

The passengers for Upper Egypt by the train de luxe on Saturday were Mr. Blunt, Mr. Edde, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Sapline, Mr. Brookfield, Mr. Chapman, Mr. Sadler, Mr. Sellear, Mr. Bendall, Mr. and Mrs Durand, Mr. and Mrs. Townshend, Mr. Ambrosano.

Count Wachmeister, the new Swedish Diplomatic Agent at Cairo, who is at present in Alexandria, has paid an official visit to the acting Governor of Alexandria, accompanied by the Swedish Vice-Consul.

THE POST OFFICE FRAUDS.

AN ARREST AT ALEXANDRIA.

Yesterday, an interesting development occurred in the startling case of the forgery of foreign money orders through the Egyptian Post Office. When the Florio-Rubattino S.S. Singapore arrived at Alexandria from Naples it was boarded by the Alexandria police, who at once arrested one of the passengers, on the charge of having acted as accomplice on the continent of Europe in furthering the machinations of the person who styled himself "George Bey," in attempting to encash money orders to the extent of £20,000. The man, when seized by the police, gave his name as Zanos Velis.

The history of the discovery of this fraud is very interesting, and reflects great credit on the Egyptian Postal Administration for so promptly following up the matter. A telegram was received last week at the General Post Office at Alexandria from the post office at Milan announcing the arrival of an unusual number of foreign money orders from Egypt and asking whether they were to be cashed. This telegram was followed by others sent from the postal authorities at Rome, Brussels, and Berne couched in similar terms. The issue of the orders was stated to have taken place on the 22nd ulto.

The Postmaster General thereupon entrusted Borton Bey with a mission of enquiry, and that official left for Cairo on Thursday. It was discovered that there had been a most serious fraud committed, for the European post offices had wired the serial numbers of the money orders. Further enquiries pointed to a certain Georgiadis, a clerk in the Cairo post office, as being the guilty party. It was found that he was nominally on sick leave at Helouan. When his whereabouts were sought after there no trace of him was discovered. Telegrams were then sent to the Italian General Post Office at Rome with orders to arrest such a man, as he was presumably following the money orders in order to encash them. A telegram was received at the General Post Office at Alexandria on Friday night announcing that the Italian authorities had effected the arrest at Naples of a man of the name of "George Bey." Further telegrams arrived here on Saturday from Naples stating that the man, who had been arrested, had admitted that his real name was Georgiadis, and that he was a postal clerk at Cairo.

A number of the money orders had been addressed to a certain Zanos, and another official enquiry was opened to discover the whereabouts of this person, but this was cleared up by a telegram from Italy to the effect that a man of that name had embarked on the Florio-Rubattino S.S. Singapore, which was due to arrive at Alexandria yesterday. The arrest was effected, as we have announced, and as Zanos is a local subject he was handed over to the Egyptian authorities and interrogated by the Parquet this morning. He admitted to the Parquet that he was employed by Georgiades.

Georgiadis, who is a Hellenic subject, bears an excellent character in his official capacity, and was recognised as a quiet, respectable, hard-working postal employé.

The total amount involved was £20,000 and it is satisfactory to know that nothing has been paid over. The fraud was executed on the 23rd ulto. and by yesterday, the 3rd inst., both the men implicated were in gaol in various parts of the world. The Egyptian postal authorities are to be congratulated on the celerity with which they followed up the indications they received from Europe.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Among the passengers who arrived by the Hohenzollern to-day were Lord Faber, Baron de Zuylen de Nyevelt, Baron George de Reuter, Comte de Gramedo, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Hunt, Col. Maberley, etc.

Count and Countess Caprara arrived from Europe yesterday by the Florio-Rubattino steamer.

Sir Ernest Cassel entertained a few friends at dinner yesterday evening at the Savoy. Among the guests were: Harari Pasha and Mme Harari, Mrs. Scrimburne, Mrs. Cassel, Sir Benjamin Baker, Baron Heintse, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Horschitz, and Mr. Marx.

Sir Ernest Cassel is leaving Cairo this evening for Upper Egypt.

Sir H. Pinching, Director General of the Public Health Department, will probably represent the Egyptian Government at the International Conference to be held at Berlin in September next.

Sir Walter Mieville, K.C.M.G., left Alexandria by the midday express to-day en route for Khartoum, accompanied by Simond Bey.

The salary of M. P. Bernardi, Khedivial Counsellor at the Contentieux of the Ministry of the Interior, has been increased to L.E. 1,750, to date from January 1.

A special tram will leave Bulkeley for Alexandria, stopping at all stations, at 2 a.m., after Mrs. Percy Carver's dance to-morrow night.

SAVOY HOTEL.

SATURDAY'S FESTIVITIES.

Few outside invitations had been issued for Saturday's dance at the Savoy; but the house is so crowded, and there were such a number of dinner parties arranged for that night, that the ball-room and lounge were patronized to their full later on in the evening. Every available table was occupied in the dining-room and restaurants, the overflow being accommodated in the covered-in verandah. Sir Ernest Cassel was one of the hosts of the evening, having Lady Newborough and Mrs. Cassel among his party. Mrs. Leverich had a large party, and among the other hosts were Dr. Tribe, Mr. and Mrs. Cochrane, Mr. Phillipson, Mrs. and Miss Bennett, Count and Countess Hellnstein, Baron Pfyffer, Baron Bleichröder, Baron Biederman, M. and Mme Cordonier, Mr. and Miss Pooley, Mr. Wigham, etc. The sextett orchestra discoursed very gentle music during the dinner hour, and the Ladies' Orchestra did their duty bravely during the remainder of the evening. The latter has improved wonderfully during the last few weeks, and if most people will insist upon waltzes which grow faster and faster, there are many dancers now who are learning the charm of a slow dance to a quick measure.

Never this season have so many beautiful frocks been seen at the Savoy; and one wonders whether the ladies of Cairo have pondered to some purpose over the saying of one of our habitués, that every one should on her arrival lock away at least two of her best dresses and forget all about them till the 1st of February. Certainly every frock almost on Saturday looked fresh enough to give colour to the surmise and many of them were of quite the best frock order. No one looked better than the Countess of Hellnstein in a wonderful dress of yellow draped with fine lace about the shoulders, which lace hung in long ends from the back of the elevated waist line. Her high coiffure was crowned with an enormous bunch of paradis in pale yellow and white, a form of decoration to which she is much addicted. Lady Newborough was wearing a lovely frock of pink satin edged with a flowing line of diamentée lace and velvet. The draped corsage was a mass of glittering jewels and sequins, and she wore a bunch of pink osprey in her hair. Mrs. Charlton also wore a lovely dress of lace made over and trimmed with pale grey satin, and Miss McKellar's dress of yellow chiffon, bearing many frills and insertions and trimmings of guipure d'Irelande, was most dainty and attractive Mrs. Carey, with her beautiful white hair, looked her best in a dress of black lace over white with bretelles and trimming of turquoise velvet, her ermine scarf adding the finishing touch to a charming toilette. Mme Sursock was in cream satin much embroidered with passementerie and bearing a deep hem of pink velvet embroidered with gold. Her pretty daughter was in yellow with a gold fillet in her hair. Mrs. Waln was with her two daughters, the eldest looking very well in a plain princesse frock of yellow satin, and Miss Blythe looked extremely handsome in a beautiful frock of pale green. Miss Shaw had on a dainty frock of spotted net over pale pink, many garlands of pink ribbon ruching trimming both skirt and bodice, and Miss Molloy was in a dress of grey chiffon taffetas, the soft corsage being of much betucked chiffon of the same shade. Mrs. Rome had on an embroidered black lace dress over pale blue, and Mrs. Wilding's dress of black had many stripes of dark blue iridescent embroidery upon it. Mrs. Wynne was in a soft gown of cream with incrustations of silver embroidery, and Miss Leverich was also in cream, her satin frock being trimmed with insertions of diamentée lace. Mrs. Armstrong, who is chaperoning the two Miss de Vahls this season, was in a handsome gown of grey velvet, while the Miss de Vahls wore pretty pompadour and pink chené silk respectively. Mrs. Stout's dress of thick lace edged and trimmed with blue velvet was much admired. Mrs. Nungovich, who arrived late, was wearing a magnificent toilette of golden tissue, over which was a robe of embroidered chiffon, and Miss Nungovich was in the daintiest of lace frocks softly gleaming with mother-of-pearl paillettes and embroidered with pink roses. Miss Hurley was in pale blue with a glittering bolero and bows of black; and one Miss York was also in pale blue, while the second was wearing a most becoming frock of emerald green chiffon outlined with narrow bands of green sequins, and with golden tassels hanging from the sleeves and also from the fillet in her hair.

Among the other ladies present were Mrs. Rom, in grey, Mrs. Stone and Miss Luck, in black, Miss Lyon Campbell, in diamentée cream satin, Miss Joseph, in yellow, Miss Pooley, in grey, Miss Duffin, in blue, Miss Coles, in pink, Mrs. Bayley, Miss Crofton, Miss Carey, Mrs. Spong, Mrs. Weldon, Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Schreiber, Miss Morritt, Mrs. Peach, and many others of which time and space forbid further mention.

ROUMANIAN STEAMER ASHORE.

The Roumanian Company's S.S. Principessa Maria, which plies between Constanza and Smyrna, went ashore at Tenedos, but was towed off by the same company's S.S. Roumania, which left Alexandria on Thursday last. The vessel sustained damage which will require two months' repairs.

STEAMER MOVEMENTS.

The Cunard S.S. Brescia sailed direct for Liverpool on Saturday afternoon with a full cargo, including 3,197 bales cotton.

GHEZIREH PALACE.

A SUCCESSFUL DANCE.

Ghezireh Palace Hotel has more than its usual complement of smart visitors this year, and the dance on Thursday evening attracted many of the residents in the neighbourhood as well as a goodly assortment from Cairo. Many came as dinner guests, Mr. Yorke having a party of eight and Mr. Goschen one of ten. Mr. Curphey, Sir Hugh and Lady Smiley, Mrs. Morcom, Mr. and Mrs. Ritz, Baron and Baronne de Pfyffer, and Mrs. Carey also had guests, and Mrs. and Miss Crofton were celebrating their arrival in company with Mr. and Mrs. Hadow. At another table were being entertained Mme. Reyntian and her son, Me. and Mme. Bazil, Miss Ami, Mrs. Maclean, Mme. Aghion, Mlle. de Codt, Mr. Priolean, Mr. Fox, and Mr. Irwin, while Mrs. Howell's party included Mrs. Stanley Bird, Miss McKellar, Lord Royston, the Hon. Claude Yorke, and Mr. G. W. Bennett.

The beautiful lounge was a brilliant sight during the interval between dinner and the dance: the many uniforms of the soldiers present adding their quota to the general effect. There were almost too many people present for the ball-room; but no one minds sitting out at Ghezireh, where there are so many cosy corners and such delightful surroundings. Mr. Machell and Lady Valda Machell were noticed in the hall; and the Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Findlay were also present. Sir Thomas Wrightson was also seen chatting with his friends; and Mrs. and Miss Crofton were being eagerly greeted by their friends: for they are both very popular, and Miss Crofton has the reputation for being a beautiful dancer. Mrs. Carey was chaperoning her daughter and Miss Fox; and Mrs. Leverich was also there with Miss Leverich wearing a pretty black frock. Everyone was glad to see Mrs. Donegan back among the dancers; and Mrs Rom made her re-appearance after her illness, which luckily was not of long duration. The Misses York were very much admired in their pretty frocks and with ribbons twisted in their fair hair; and Miss Rees could have filled her card many times over, as usual. Lord and Lady Vivian were present with Miss Vivian wearing a delightful Empire frock of grey net, and the Countess von Hollenstein was a most striking figure in black panne with a mass of waving white feathers in her coiffure. The Misses Coles were in blue, as was Miss Fearan, her cousin, Miss Joseph wearing white net. Mrs. Howell wore a very handsome dress of satin bearing heavy applications of gold embroidery, and Miss McKellar had on a lovely frock of net and lace over palest pink embroidered with tiny roses and relieved by lines of thin black. Mrs. Wynne was in one of her dainty frocks, a lovely shade of blue, with sleeves and chemisette of white, and blue bretelles across the shoulders, and Miss Blythe looked her stately best in vieux rose. Mrs. Chatterton Adams' dress of white was run with tiny frills of black, and Mrs. Peach was wearing a black lace dress mounted over white. Mrs. Hunter also wore a magpie dress of black and white lace, and Mrs. Trafford Hateson was well turned out as ever in a diamentée dress of yellow. Miss Coxon looked well in black, a colour which various others had also patronized.

Among others noticed during the evening were Mrs. Twomey, Mme Reyntians, Capt. and Mrs. Bayley, Mrs. Maclean, Mrs. Park Lyle, Dr. and Mrs. Phillips, the Messrs. and Miss de Bilinski, Mrs. Stanley Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, the Messrs. Reid, Miss Etherington Smith, Mr. Leslie Chatfield, Mr. Gutman, Captain Stirling, Mr. Pooley, Mr. Carter Wilson, Mr. Evans, and Mr. de Costa Andrada.

An extra item of interest was added to this evening by the presence of Miss Julie Critten, the clever palmist, who received her clients in one of the drawing rooms of the hotel. Many people have already taken advantage of this clever lady's services, and she is already being eagerly sought after. Miss Critten is making arrangements to receive her clientèle from time to time at the Savoy; and ere long it is expected that she will be in as great request in Cairo as she already is in Bond Street.

OPERA HOUSE STRIKE.

The strike of the fourteen musicians at the Khedivial Opera House, Cairo, is the talk of the Capital. According to their version, they had counted on extra earnings to make ends meet, such, for instance, as a series of classic concerts at the Cercle Artistique. M. Poncet objected; whence the defection. The Cairote Press deals with the question from points of view characteristic of their respective opinion. "L'Egypte" is opposed to all arbitrary measures adopted against the strikers, and wonders that such incidents have not taken place before, in view of the antecedents of the director of the troupe.

"L'Orient" counsels moderation, and an appeal to the good offices of M. le Consul de France. It sympathises with M. Poncet, and absolves him of all blame.

The "Journal du Caire" writes in the same strain.

The "Pyramides" is funny: "It is true that concord is not the most shining point of our musicians of the Opera. The Press has said so since the beginning of the season."

OPERA IN CAIRO.

KHEDIVIAL OPERA HOUSE.

(FROM OUR THEATRICAL CORRESPONDENT).

"L'Africaine" afforded us all the keenest delight—quite apart from the undoubted merit of M. Meyerbeer's music. That charming vessel rolling, on its obvious pivots, even as the "Umberto Primo" rolls off the Cretan coast, the desolate mien of the crew huddled close to the bulwarks, M. Mézy's sustained and despairing clutch at the mast, the while he shouted in sonorous frenzy, the wild incursion and alarm at the end—as of porters and boatmen in Naples harbour all was a joy, tinged with hope of "leave" to come, or reminiscence of leave enjoyed. Even the cabin hangings which M. Fontaine brushed aside as he came and went were a memory of bathrooms and cabins, poignant and vivid. Yet no "Rubattino" or other boat could find its wild way to that weird island peopled with high-priests of the Brahmin persuasion, ballet-dancers, and, last of all, savages in sumptuous armour and European boots: those of course they had looted from the late departed crew of the ill-fated ship. Oh! most exquisite island, most romantic ship!

The opera itself was performed much as usual, not without vigour and inaccuracy. Mlle. Devillay, though, was really delicious. M. Fontaine seems to take to the "fort ténor" parts, and enjoys his high notes. He is really a fine actor and musician. What a pity his voice is so displeasing! He deserves a better fate. The orchestra, it appears, was "on strike," but it was hard to notice any great difference, except that there were fewer and less prominent discords. M. Archimbaud would probably do quite well with two men and a boy, instead of the recalcitrant band he fails to control.

ABBAS THEATRE.

There were two really bad episodes in "Mefistofele": the chorus in the prologue was appalling, and in the second part Signora Orbellini gave an entirely wrong rendering of the "Elena" music. The "La luna piena" should be, vocally, as cold, as clear, as rippling as the words are themselves. She treated it as she would have treated "La Tosca." However, her voice in itself is charming, the mistake was technical only. The only other fault was a certain want of cohesion in the garden scene; but Signor Lucenti saved the situation.

With these exceptions, it was really finely given. The conductor knows the opera, he handles his orchestra with a splendid keen vigour and intellectuality, which one appreciates after Signor Archimbaud's listless, almost careless, treatment. Signor Battani, for all he had a bad cold, was exquisite; one could only just detect a certain slight huskiness; and he seemed disinclined to take any notes higher than a natural H; took them all the same once or twice. Signa. Fabris was nervous until the 3rd act. In that she was faultless; she sang with all the sweetness, passion, and dramatic power the scene requires. And Signor Lucenti! He was not Signor Lucenti, he was Mefistofele incarnate. He conveyed every least shade of irony, sarcasm, scathing contempt that Boito has put into the part; and his voice is a thing to dream of,—a superb full bass, resonant, never harsh, never a hair-breadth off the note. The part could not have been better sung. We have heard Signor Walter in the part in 1904-1905 and he evidently gave it finely this season at Alexandria. But Signor Lucenti puts his rendering, fine as it is, entirely into the shade. The prologue—where we forgot all the evil discords of the chorus, the "Fischio fischio" song in all its utter contempt for God and man, the whole of the Brocken scene, the mocking, disgusted, disdainful satire of "Questa Attica Terra," and the finale where the fiend descends, vanquished, but still great and contemptuous—one can find no words for these. I think if the Alexandria critic had heard it, he would have changed his opinion of Boito and his opera. Many, it is true,—many eminent musicians as well—think little enough of Boito: they say he cannot orchestrate, his effects are shadowy, his scenes badly arranged, his methods old-fashioned and poor. But the fact remains that "Mefistofele," for all it failed in 1868, is now given all over Italy, as well as in London and Paris, and that "Mefistofele" had as much influence as the work of Verdi himself on Italian opera. And really the beauty of the 3rd act, of the "Fischio" song, of the Greek underworld scene, and the weird declamation on the Brocken, do deserve acknowledgment. Of course, Boito under-orchestrates; he only wrote that one opera. How should he learn in one opera to handle orchestras. He is an experimentalist with no sort of wish to turn out 30 or 40 big pieces of work; he is an analyst and a poet: the whole of the libretto is taken from the original legend. He owes nothing to Gounod, and only a certain amount to Goethe himself: his reading is totally different. All through the music, too, he experiments: he has special instruments and orchestration for Mefistofele—the "squilli" and certain pizzicato effects—and for Faust, usually violins and a certain soft and more melodious suavity. Of course, the whole work must be carefully given and properly staged. The Brocken scene, the Greek scene, the "Si gira, si gira" chorus, all have their absurd side; but so have many great operas. Anyone who heard M. Zuccani do the "Tannhauser" overture in waltz time will acknowledge that. Signor Lucenti, by the way, is from La Scala, and is considered to be one of the three finest basses in Italy. The "Abbas" is treating us well, in that several others of the troupe are prominent performers at Milan, Naples, and other great opera towns.

U. S. A. AND JAPAN.

WILD TALK OF WAR.

WASHINGTON, February 2.

Several American newspapers are printing the wildest articles regarding the prospects of a war with Japan, despite the assurance of Mr. Taft that such talk was absurd. It is alleged by them that Japan has practically presented an ultimatum. A circumstantial but unauthorised report of President Roosevelt's speech to the Californian Congressmen, published here, represents the President as urging the necessity for the immediate removal of the causes of friction without awaiting the decision of the Courts on the school question, on the ground that war with proud, brave Japan would be very different from war with Spain. They add that the Japanese are unlike Europeans, and would not exhaust the resources of diplomacy but strike quickly and without any warning.

The officials condemn the revival of the war talk as utterly unwarranted and tending to hinder a rational settlement, now in progress, being arrived at. (Reuter)

RAILWAY INSTITUTE v. A.O.C.

The above teams met in the return match on the Institute ground on Friday last, the first meeting having ended in a win for the Corps by 3 goals to one. The Institute had to rely on several reserves owing to the inability of some of the first team to turn out. The Corps, having won the toss, had the sun at their backs during the first half. The Institute from the kick off led a warm attack on the visitors' goal, the custodian saving from Esau in the first minute. The game, owing to the heavy state of the ground, was slow and uninteresting, the players finding great difficulty in keeping their feet. Still the home team soon settled down to sound work, only the fine defensive work of the visiting backs keeping them out. At length Smith, on the left, receiving from Lloyd Jones, made a beautiful run almost the whole length of the ground, and when within a few yards of the corner flag sent in a perfect centre, and Jones, pouncing on the ball, sent it flying into the net, giving the custodian no chance whatever. The interval arrived a few minutes later with the score 1 goal to nil in favour of the home team.

After the usual refresher the corps kicked off, but the home forwards soon settled down in the visitors' territory, Esau adding a second point soon after the resumption. Smith played one of his best games at outside left, leading continuous raids on the visitors' fortress. During the biggest part of the second half the homesters kept the visitors on the defensive, the custodian clearing time after time, and from one of Smith's centres Jones missed by inches only, heading outside when almost on the goal-line.

The homesters continued to have matters their own way, adding still another point from a weak clearance from the custodian Lloyd Jones secured and sending in a stiff shot towards the far post when one of the forwards rushed up and turned the ball into the opposite corner of the net. From now to the end the soldiers had more of the game, eventually scoring through Parrington from outside left, Davies being left helpless. The game ended shortly afterwards in a well deserved win to the Institute team, who throughout played good, clean football. The visitors had a smart line of forwards quick on the ball, but very often they were beaten by the home half-backs, Jones, Mahmoud and Miller, who gave the opposing forwards no quarter. Jones, besides playing a fine defensive game, gave Smith plenty of opportunities which he accepted. Hayes, as usual, was sound and along with Marshall saved Davies a good deal of work. The home custodian was in fine form, and was seldom in difficulties.

THE LATE DEAN BUTCHER.

Mrs. Butcher publishes the following letter in the last issue of the All Saints' parish magazine :—

CHURCH HOUSE,

ST. PAUL'S DAY, January 1907.

My dear friends,—I take this opportunity of thanking you all most sincerely for your kind letters and words of sympathy with me in my sorrow—which I know is also your sorrow. It is my chief comfort to receive such evidence of the way in which he was loved and appreciated by all those who knew him. It was a great disappointment to him not to go home; he had looked forward with so much longing to a few years of rest and quiet in our Devonshire home. But in this as in all else, he resigned his own will without a murmur, when it was made clear to him that he was called upon to lay down his life and his charge together.

I thank you all for coming to his last "Saturday," and for the thoughtful and reverent care with which everything was done. He would have liked the flowers too, they were like himself, of a rare and fragrant simplicity. He suffered much during the last week or two, particularly at night, but I need hardly tell you that his patience and courtesy never failed. Towards the end I was compelled to seek professional help at night, and when I came in to see him after one of those dreadful nights, his first words were always to enquire if I had slept; his second to tell me that the nurse was very tired, and must go at once to get a good rest.

He loved you all to the end. Almost his last words were a message to his "dear people." "Beloved, let us love one another." I believe they were to have been the closing words of his farewell sermon. He hoped for a long time that he might be able to speak to you again. After his death I found seven or eight newly-written sermons, ready for the time when he should be well again. Mr. Burns will read these to you during the next few Sundays. There was also another one, of which he told me the substance, but of which I have not yet found any notes. It was to be a sermon specially delivered to the young Englishmen in Egypt, and, if I cannot find it, I will at least write later the principal thing which he wanted to say to them. I have still some copies also of his published sermons, and if there are some who would like a copy, I should be glad to have their names and addresses, and will send the books from England.

He was no cloistered saint, but had been called to tread the ways of bitter sorrow. But he had a well-spring of joy and peace which made everyone forget his troubles, even when they were at the worst, and he was always glad that it should be so. He loved merriment, and was always ready to laugh at himself, as well as with others. Love and joy were the keynotes of his life.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, that they rest from their labours, and their works do follow them."

"For the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, there shall no torment touch them."

ARMY NOTES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.)

London, January 25.

Lieutenant the Honourable C. D. Baring, 2nd Battalion the Coldstream Guards, is about to retire from the Army. Mr. Baring served with the Coldstreamers throughout the South African War from the advance towards the relief of Kimberley till the last shot in May, 1902. He holds the Queen's medal with six clasps, and the King's medal with two clasps, for the actions of Belmont, Enslin, Modder River, Magersfontein, Vet River, Zand River, Johannesburg, Pretoria, Diamond Hill, Belfast, and the minor affairs in the Transvaal, Cape Colony and Orange River Colony.

Lieutenant W. D. Kenny, 1st Battalion Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, Belfast, has been selected for service with the Egyptian Army, and proceeds forthwith to Cairo to report himself to the Sirdar. Lieutenant Kenny has worn the busby of the old 27th since March, 1901, when he was appointed to the regiment from the unattached list. He is the son of Judge Kenny, and saw a good deal of service in the South African War, including the operations of 1901-02 in the Transvaal, Orange River Colony, and Cape Colony, for which he received the Queen's medal with five clasps.

Lieutenant N. A. Orr-Ewing, 2nd Battalion Scots Guards, of the well known Scottish military family, has also been selected for service with the Khedive's Army. Lieutenant Orr-Ewing has served in the Scots Guards since September, 1900, when he was appointed second lieutenant from the 4th Battalion Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, then in South Africa. He shared in the operations in Cape Colony and Orange River Colony (Queen's medal with two clasps). He is the senior subaltern in the regiment.

When the 1st Battalion Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, Belfast, and the 1st Battalion Connaught Rangers, Mullingar, leave those places for Crete and Malta respectively, their details will be sent to Tidworth Camp, Salisbury Plain, to join the Provisional Battalion. Tidworth is about the dreariest station in the United Kingdom during the winter months.

Alpine Health Resort, beautifully situated on a plateau free from dust, in the midst of fir and pine woods; connected by means of a pleasant forest road (10 minutes) with the world-renowned Saline Springs of Tarasp. Thanks to the rare and happy combination of Climatic and Alpine advantages with the health-giving Springs of Tarasp, Vulpera occupies an eminent place amongst similar health resorts. The alkaline-saline, cold glauber salt springs, Luzius and Emerita, may be compared with those of Carlsbad, Marienbad, Kissingen, and Vichy by the following table :—

1,000 parts contain—	Amount of Solid Constituents.	Carbonic acid free and semi-united.	Sulphate of Soda.	Bicarbonate of Soda.	Chloride of Sodium.	Feet above the level of the Sea.
Tarasp (Luzius spring)...	12.8	5.55	2.2	4.3	3.9	4.000
Carlsbad (Sprudel)	6.3	0.79	2.4	1.9	1.0	1.200
Marienbad (Ferdinand's brunnen)... ...	10.2	4.24	4.7	1.9	1.8	2.100
Vichy	7.0	2.60	—	5.2	0.5	750
Kissingen (Rakoczy)	9.0	4.19	—	—	5.8	600

It is a well-known fact that the springs of Tarasp conjointly with the Alpine climate of Vulpera, are most efficacious in the following cases: After-effects of tropical affections and malaria, affections of the digestive organs (chronic catarrhs of the stomach, and intestines, constipation, chronic diarrhœa, dyspepsia, hemorrhoids), diseases of the metabolism and disturbances of nutrition (obesity, diabetes, gout, gravel, scrofula, chlorosis, anæmia), affections of the liver and the spleen, neurasthenia, chronic bronchial catarrh and bronchial asthma. The Iron-Arsenic Springs, with baths, of "Val Sinestra," situated near Vulpera, are especially beneficial in cases of nervousness, anæmia and rheumatism.

PROSPECTUS.

This Company has been formed for the objects set out in the Company's Memorandum of Association, including the acquisition of the clientele and business of the partnership "en commandite" carried on at Cairo and Alexandria under the style of A. LUNGHIS & Co. as from the 1st January 1907, the carrying on of the business of stock, share and produce brokers, and the undertaking of Exchange, Bourse, Financial and Commercial operations and transactions of all kinds.

The Company intends forthwith to commence business at Cairo and Alexandria and for that purpose has entered into arrangements for the conduct of its affairs on the Bourses at Cairo and Alexandria and will enter into such other arrangements as may be necessary.

The Directors and friends have subscribed the Company's Memorandum of Association for 97,000 shares.

The Vendors, Messrs. Achille Lunghis & Co., show their confidence in the Company's future by not only accepting the whole of the purchase consideration payable to them entirely in fully paid shares and subscribing for 20,000 shares by the Company's Memorandum of Association, but they have also agreed to deposit with the Company 50,000 fully paid shares to the intent that the said 50,000 shares shall not be sold or dealt with by them as to 30,000 during the period of three years from the date of the Company's incorporation, and as to 20,000 during the period of one year from the same date.

The whole of the purchase consideration, namely £36,000, to be paid in fully paid shares represents the agreed value of the goodwill.

The Company has secured the services of Mr. ACHILLE LUNGHIS as its Managing Director for a period of five years from the date of the incorporation of the Company.

The services of MR. ARTHUR SPAGNOLO, until recently "fondé de pouvoirs" of the Crédit Lyonnais at Alexandria, have also been retained for a like period, as Assistant Manager.

The Articles of Association contain the following provisions:

94 As remuneration for their services the Directors (other than the Managing Director) shall be paid at the rate of £100 per annum for each ordinary Director and at the rate of £250 per annum for the Chairman.

Provided, nevertheless, that if in any year a dividend at the rate of at least £6 per annum is not paid, the remuneration of the Directors shall be at one half of the before mentioned rate.

In addition to the aforesaid remuneration, each Director shall also receive such further sum (if any) as the Company in general meeting may from time to time determine. An alternate Director appointed under Article 90 hereof shall not as such be entitled to any remuneration.

95. Any Director may be employed by or hold any office of profit under the Company, except that of Auditor of the Company, and may act either personally or as a member of the firm for, or render any professional services to the Company, and may receive remuneration from the Company for so doing in addition to any remuneration payable to him as a Director. If any Director, being willing, shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing abroad, or in negotiating or carrying into effect any contract or arrangement by the Company or otherwise for any of the purposes of the Company, or act as Trustee for the Company or its debenture holders, and shall do so, the Company may remunerate such Director either by a fixed sum or a percentage of profits, or otherwise, as may be determined by the Directors, and such remuneration may be either in addition to or in substitution for his remuneration above provided. If any Director shall be appointed to represent the Company as a Director of any subsidiary or other Company in which the Company shall be interested, he shall, unless otherwise agreed, be entitled to retain the remuneration attaching to such Directorship for his own use.

CONTRACTS.

The following contracts have been entered into:—

An agreement dated the 20th day of November 1906 between the members of the partnership firm "en commandite" A. Lunghis & Co. namely, Achille Lunghis, Geo Miniakis, Constantin Rezzos, Maria Kavaffi, Michel Salvago, of the first part, Cleon Lunghis of the second part and Charles H. Lloyd of the 3rd part whereby the said firm A Lunghis & Co. agreed to sell to the Company its business as a going concern including the goodwill, pending contracts, and agreements for tenancy, as at the 1st January 1907.

An agreement dated the 27th December 1906 between the Company and Mr. Achille Lunghis providing for the appointment of the latter as Managing Director of the Company for a period of five years at a salary of 1,000 pounds per annum and a percentage of 3% of the gross profits of the Company remaining in each year after deduction of the general expenses.

An Agreement dated the 27th day of December 1906 between the Company and Arthur Spagnolo providing for the appointment of the latter as Assistant Manager and for his remuneration as such.

GENERAL.

The amount fixed by the Articles as to minimum subscription upon which the Directors may proceed to allotment is £10.000.

The preliminary expenses payable by the Company are estimated at £3,000.

By the Articles the Directors have power to increase the capital of the Company by the creation of new shares of such an amount as they may deem expedient not exceeding, with the original capital, £1,000,000.

A copy of the Memorandum of Association which forms part of this prospectus is endorsed hereon.

Applications for shares should be made on the accompanying form, and forwarded with cheque for the amount payable on application to the Company's Bankers.

If no allotment is made the application money will be returned in full, and where the number of shares allotted is less than that applied for, the surplus will be credited in reduction of the amount payable on allotment, and any excess will be returned to the applicant.

Failure to pay any instalment when due will render the previous payments liable to be forfeited.

The above mentioned contracts or copies thereof, together with a print of the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association, may be inspected at the offices of the Company in Cairo and Alexandria.

Copies of the Prospectus and application forms can be obtained at the said offices of the Company, or from the Bankers.

BULLETIN DE LA BOURSE

(Aujourd'hui à midi et demie.)

Bien que l'attention ait été retenue ce matin par les règlements de fin de mois, il y a eu cependant un mouvement d'échanges assez actif en Nile Land, Nungovich Hotels, Ritz, Arditi et Levico.

Les Ritz s'avancent à 1 2⁵/32. Les Arditi sont demandés à 1 11/32 les actions et 22 livres les parts de fondateurs. La Lanchis s'inscrit à 1 11/32 acheteurs également et la Levico à 1 5/16. L'United a été peu traitée. Elle cote environ 1 7/32 et 9 livres la part de fondateur.

La Nile Land, après avoir dépassé 23 livres clôture à 22 5/8 3/4. La hausse est attribuée à la vente par cette société de sa propriété de Kasr-el-Aly sur laquelle elle aurait réalisé un énorme bénéfice. Il s'agirait de 80,000 mètres achetés à 2 livres environ et vendus à 15 livres le mètre.

Demande croissante en Union Foncière qui s'avance à 6 3/8 acheteurs. Des cours beaucoup plus élevés sont prévus à brève échéance

En hausse également la Privilégiée Bière d'Alexandrie à 230, l'Obligation Crédit Foncier à 348 l'ancienne et 272 1/2 la nouvelle, la Banque d'Athènes à 136 1/2, les Nungovich à 24⁵/8, la Delta Land à 4 19/32, la Land Bank à 9 3/16, la Building Lands à 6 5/16, et la Port Said Salt à 15/6.

Par contre, la National Bank fléchit à 28 1/16, les Privilégiées Tramways à 399 et les Dividendes à 360, les Privilégiées Bière du Caire à 128, la Salt and Soda à 22/9, les Lots Turcs à 156 la Cassa di Sconto à 283, l'Urbaine à 7 15/16, et la part de fondateur Comptoir à 95.

Sur le reste aucun changement à signaler.

La tendance pour la semaine paraît être excellente, sauf événement imprévu.

Circulaire H. De Vries et Boutigny

NOTES ET CRITIQUES

Le Caire, Samedi 2 Février 1907.

Le taux de l'escompte libre à Londres est remonté hier de 1/8 à 4 3/4 pour cent. Au Stock Exchange, le Consolidé anglais a haussé de 1/4 à 87 1/4. L'Unifiée est restée invariée à 103 1/2. La National Bank a réactionné de 1/4 à 28 3/8. L'Agricole est demeurée inchangée à 9 7/8, de même que la Daïra à 17 7/8 et la Delta Light à 11 1/2.

A Paris, le Crédit Foncier Egyptien a encore progressé de 1 franc à 778. La Banque d'Athènes a également gagné 1 franc à 138.

Ici, le marché a présenté beaucoup d'animation et de fermeté à l'ouverture, spécialement sur les Nungovich, la Delta Land, les obligations anciennes du Crédit Foncier et diverses autres valeurs; mais la clôture a été, en général, moins soutenue.

Dans le compartiment des Banques, la National et l'Agricole se sont maintenues à leurs prix d'hier, soit 28 1/4 et 9 7/8-15/16. La Cassa di Sconto s'est raffermie à 284-285. La Banque d'Abyssinie a regagné 1/4 à 5 1/4.

Le Crédit Foncier est resté inerte à 778; l'obligation à lots ancienne a passé de 339 à 351, sous l'effet du tirage d'amortissement du 1er Mars prochain, pour finir à 347. La Béhéra a progressé à 40 1/8. La Warlan Estate a fait bien à 7 5/8 et sa part à 9 3/8. La Nile Land a bénéficié de L.E. 1 3/4 à 20 3/4. L'Immobilière est revenue à 384-385. L'Enterprise and Development a atteint 13 7/8-14 et sa part 23 1/4. Les Allotments se sont alourdis à 3 9/16-5/8 et leur part à 141.

Les Entreprises Immobilières et Travaux se sont tenues à L.E 15; leur part a clôturé à 303 après avoir atteint 309. L'Epargne Immobilière a été traitée à 3 5/8; sa part a été ramenée à 285. L'Express Nile a terminé à 5 9/16 et sa part à 315.

Les Jouissances Eaux du Caire sont revenues à 293 et les Automobiles à 5 13/16-7/8.

Dans le groupe des valeurs hôtelières, les Nungovich en excellente tendance, ont gagné plus d'une livre à 24 3/16-1/4. Les Egyptian ont avancé à 12 15/16. Les Upper Egypt se sont tassés à 4 9/16-7/8 et les National à 3 13/16-7/8.

Parmi les petites valeurs, les Delta Land ont fait un brillant début aux abords de 4 3/4 pour finir à 4 9/16. Les Salt and Soda sont retombés à 23 sh. Les Cotton Mills ont progressé à 6 sh. 9. Rien de particulier à relever sur les autres titres.

D'après une statistique qui peut être considérée comme exacte, il y a en ce moment en préparation en Egypte 30 (nous disons trente) nouvelles émissions qui vont être lancées dans le cours du mois ou de Mars prochain.

Il importe de recommander la plus grande circonspection à l'égard de ces affaires. Il y en a peut être d'excellentes dans le nombre; mais on ne saurait rien affirmer avant de les avoir connues et étudiées pour distinguer la bonne graine de l'ivraie.

C'est dans le courant de la semaine prochaine que seront nommés les deux administrateurs nouveaux qui renforceront le Board égyptien de la Delta Land.

L'un de ces administrateurs est certainement M. Raphaël Suares. L'autre sera, paraît-il, une importante personnalité financière dont le nom ne tardera pas à être connu.

On dément de source autorisée la nouvelle, répandue ces jours derniers, suivant laquelle les Egyptian Markets Ltd. auraient obtenu de l'Etat le monopole de l'importation en Egypte des nitrates à usage d'engrais.

La stricte vérité est que la Société se propose de se livrer largement à cette importation, et c'est à cet effet qu'elle a décidé d'émettre le solde de son capital autorisé.

Carnet de l'actionnaire :

Les actionnaires de la Nile Land and Agricultural Co., sont convoqués en assemblée générale ordinaire pour le 18 février courant, à 4 h. p.m. au siège social à Alexandrie. A l'ordre du jour : rapport du conseil ; présentation des comptes de l'exercice 1906 ; fixation du dividende ; nominations statutaires. On rapporte que le dividende proposé est de 5 %, soit P.E. 25 par action.

—L'assemblée générale ordinaire de la Société Egyptienne de la Daïra Sanieh aura lieu le 26 du courant, à 3 h p.m., à la National Bank of Egypt. A l'ordre du jour : rapport du conseil ; approbation des comptes de l'exercice 1906 ; fixation du dividende.

—Une assemblée extraordinaire de la Cairo Electric Railways and Heliopolis Oases Co. est convoquée pour le 5 Mars prochain au Caire à l'effet de donner des pouvoirs au conseil d'administration pour une augmentation ultérieure du capital social.

PROSPECTUS

THE EGYPTIAN ECONOMICAL RESIDENCES Cy a pour objet : la construction, l'exploitation, a location, la datation ou prise a bail, l'achat, la vente au comptant ou par paiements échelonnés, pour son compte personnel ou en participation, la gérance d'habitations a bon marché ou autres ; l'achat, la vente de terrains ruraux ou urbains ainsi que toutes opérations commerciales, industrielles ou financières se rattachant de près ou de loin au but social tant en son nom personnel qu'en participation et cela dans la plus large conception de l'idée sans que l'énoncé précédent puisse être considéré comme restrictif.

La Société vient d'acheter dans des conditions de prix et de paiement très avantageuses environ 9920 mètres carrés de terrain à bâtir sis entre le Zaher et la Route de l'Abbassieh, au point connu sous le nom d'ancien abattoir, divisés en plusieurs lots.

Elle a acquis aussi avec grandes facilités de paiement, la propriété connue sous le nom de Palais Yeghen d'une contenance de 20,000 mètres carrés environ sis à Seroughieh, dans un des centres les plus populeux du Caire, aux environs de Khan-Khalil, de la Sekka Guédida, du Mouski, de la Place Mansour Pacha, du Gouvernorat et des Tribunaux Mixtes, presque en bordure du Boulevard Mohammed Aly.

Les employés des Banques et du Commerce y trouveront aux environs des lieux de leur travail des logements confortables dont la proximité leur évitera des pertes de temps sans les obliger a des dépenses de transport.

La démolition des énormes bâtisses qui constituent le Palais Yeghen et la vente des matériaux en provenant seront mises immédiatement en adjudication.

La Société se propose d'édifier ensuite, des constructions de plusieurs étages divisés en nombreux appartements composés de pièces judicieusement distribuées, ventilées, éclairées et assainies par l'adoption de tous les principes de l'hygiène la mieux comprise. Ces appartements pourront être cédés en location a des prix modestes, a partir de 3 L.E. par mois suivant les étages et le nombre de pièces dont ils se composeront.

Mr. Margossoff Bey, Ingénieur au Caire, expert près les Tribunaux Mixtes, chargé par la Société de visiter le terrain, et d'en apprécier la valeur, a déclaré dans son rapport d'expertise que la vente par lots peut rapporter un minimum de 75% de bénéfice. Nous avons lieu de croire que cette prévision sera dépassée de beaucoup.

Mr. Marichal, Ingénieur, expert près les Tribunaux Mixtes d'Alexandrie, également consulté, a conclu après étude sur les lieux, que les capitaux employés en constructions économiques élevées sur ce terrain pourraient obtenir un intérêt de 15% l'an net.

EXTRAITS DES STATUTS.

ARTICLE 43.

Sur les bénéfices nets et annuels il sera prélevé :

1° 5% pour la formation du fonds de réserve. Ce prélèvement cessera d'être obligatoire lorsque le fonds atteindra le cinquième du Capital Social.

2° La somme nécessaire pour servir aux actions un premier dividende de 5 % sur le capital versé.

L'excédent sera réparti comme suit :

25% au Conseil d'Administration.

75% aux actionnaires.

ARTICLE 6.

Les appels de fonds qu'il y aura lieu de faire sur les actions émises ou a émettre ultérieurement seront réglés par le Conseil d'Administration qui en déterminera l'époque ainsi que le mode et le lieu de paiement.

Toute somme dont le paiement est retardé porte de plein droit en faveur de la Société, intérêt a 9% l'an a partir du jour de l'exigibilité sans demande en justice.

A défaut de versement a l'échéance, la Société a droit, un mois après publication des numéros des titres en retard dans un journal désigné pour les annonces judiciaires au Caire, de faire procéder a la vente, en bloc ou en détail, même a des époques successives, des actions a la Bourse d'Alexandrie ou du Caire, par courtiers ou agents de change, pour le compte et aux risques et périls des retardataires sans mise en demeure ni formalités judiciaires.

Les titres ainsi vendus deviennent nuls de plein droit et il en est délivré aux acquéreurs de nouveaux sous les mêmes numéros.

Tout titre qui ne porte pas mention régulière du versement des sommes exigibles cesse d'être négociable.

Les mesures autorisées par le présent article ne font pas obstacle a l'exercice simultané par la Société des moyens ordinaires de droit.

Les prix provenant de la vente, déduction faite des frais, appartiennent a la Société et s'imputent, dans les termes de droit, sur ce qui est dû par l'actionnaire exproprié qui reste passible de la différence s'il y a déficit, mais qui profite de l'excédent s'il en existe.

Les demandes d'actions doivent être faites sur formule ci jointe et envoyées accompagnées du dépôt a :

Monsieur le Directeur de la CASSA DI SCONTO E DI RISPARMIO, au Caire ou à Alexandrie.

La répartiton sera faite au Caire par les soins de la CASSA DI SCONTO E DI RISPARMIO, date des souscriptions.

Au cas où le nombre aucune action ne serait allouée, le dépôt sera remboursé intégralement et au paiement de d'actions allouées serait inférieur a celui demandé, la différence sera appliquée dû par le souscripteur.

PROSPECTUS

FONDATION DE LA SOCIÉTÉ.—La Société Anonyme THE ARTESIAN BORING & PROSPECTING Co. a été autorisée par Décret Khédivial du 15 Mai 1904.

OBJET.—Elle a pour but : le forage et l'installation de puits dits artésiens, soit pour l'alimentation en eau potable des villes et des particuliers, soit pour l'irrigation des terres ; l'acquisition de terrains susceptibles d'être cultivés grâce a l'irrigation artésienne et autres ; l'exécution de toutes sortes de sondages et forages profonds pour recherches minières ; l'obtention et l'exploitation de toutes concessions de recherches.

TRAVAUX EXECUTÉS :

a) IRRIGATIONS.—La Société a exécuté depuis sa fondation un grand nombre d'installations d'irrigation artésienne, et elle a en mains pour plus de L.E. 20,000 de nouveaux contrats, dont plusieurs concernent des installations devant fournir chacune environ 30,000 m3 d'eau par jour. Le nombre toujours croissant de commandes de puits artésiens provient :
1° de ce que l'irrigation artésienne permet d'éviter les inconvénients du système des rotations ;
2° de la mise en culture de nombreux terrains auxquels fait défaut toute irrigation par l'eau du Nil.

b) ALIMENTATIONS EN EAU POTABLE.—La Société a achevé plusieurs installations en eau potable pour le compte d'Administrations Gouvernementales et de particuliers, entre autres celle de la ville de Khartoum. Elle vient d'être chargée de l'exécution de la partie hydraulique pour les fournitures en eau potable des villes de Menouf et Zagazig.

c) FORAGES PROFONDS.—La Société possède des outillages à vapeur pour sondages et forages a grande profondeur. Un forage a 800 pieds a été fait a Port Sudan et un autre de 500 a 1,000 pieds de profondeur est en cours d'exécution dans la même localité. Le Gouvernement a également chargé la Société de faire à Mersa Matrooh un sondage de 700 pieds pour recherche d'eau douce. Un sondage de recherche a été exécuté a 400 pieds de profondeur pour le compte de l'Egyptian Coal Syndicate.

CONCESSIONS.—La Société a obtenu du Gouvernement une concession de 5.100 feddans de terrains cultivables dans le district de Mersa Matrooh et de 12,000 m2 de terrain a bâtir le long du port de cette même localité.

Cette concession est appelée au plus grand avenir par suite de l'achèvement prochain du chemin de fer construit par Son Altesse le Khédive sur la côte Ouest d'Alexandrie.

RESULTATS OBTENUS.—Il a été distribué 6 % pour le 1er exercice ; 9 % pour le 2me après amortissement de tous frais de premier établissement et de 20 % sur la valeur du matériel. Les comptes arrêtés provisoirement au 30 Novembre 1906, accusent déjà pour les 8 premiers mois du 3me exercice, actuellement en cours et se terminant le 31 Mars 1907, un bénéfice de plus de 20 % du capital, déduction faite de tous frais d'exploitation et d'administration. Les affaires actuellement conclues, dont la plus grande partie ne s'achèveront qu'au cours de l'exercice prochain, assurent d'ores et déjà a elles seules un bénéfice suffisant pour rémunérer le nouveau capital émis.

AUGMENTATION DU CAPITAL.—Les fonds provenant de la nouvelle émission seront affectés pricipalement à :
1.—La mise en valeur de la concession de Mersa Matrooh.
2.—L'acquisition et la mise en valeur de terrains susceptibles d'être exploités au moyen d'irrigation artésienne.
3.—L'extension des entreprises de forages profonds pour recherches minières.

La Société a déjà fait ses preuves. Les résultats qu'elle a pu obtenir avec un capital aussi minime que celui dont elle a disposé jusqu'à présent, montrent ce qu'elle pourra réaliser lorsque ses ressources lui permettront de porter son activité dans les diverses branches que ses Statuts l'autorisent a exploiter. 29471-3-2
